

I am an enthusiastic self-taught digital designer. I love to think and design better brands, products, interfaces and apps as well as writing HTML/CSS to provide better web experiences with innovative solutions.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I wish to make part of a great, collaborative and friendly team, achieving every target proposed, designing digital interactive stuff and also to continue learning and growing as a digital designer while applying my creativity, knowledge, experience and people skills to benefit my employer and my team.

WHAT I DO

UX/UI design, web design (front-end), branding, marketing, graphic design, editorial design, graphics animations, origami and other manual stuff.

EDUCATION

I am a self-taught UI/UX designer since 2002 curiously with two graduations — law (90%+, unfinished for personal reasons) and Technology Information (Abandoned, because I love math, but I need more.) —, both in Federal University of Rio Grande do Norte.

WORK EXPERIENCE

I have always been self-taught. I debuted as intern UI designer in a local agency, Interativa Digital, after at Ponto Criativo.

Essentially, entrepreneur, I have freelanced since 2009, with interspersed experiences in medium companies, such as Ritz-G5 (2016) as a marketing analyst and Stepmoney (2012-15) as a creative director.

LANGUAGES

I am fluent in English, und auf Deutsch auch, mit Vorbehalte. O português é minha língua nativa. J'ai étudié beaucoup français y también español.

INTERESTS

ABROAD EXPERIENCE

I lived in Munich, Germany, in 2005, and had the opportunity to travel to cities of Europe, absorbing cultural aspects of labour, within the continuous pursuit of excellence.

In 2011, I was involved with the production of Spiral-Book, conceptual origami book authored by Tomoko Fuse and produced by Viereck Verlag, in Freising, Germany.
